

PRIVACY STATEMENT

In accordance with Articles 12, 13 and 14 of the EU Regulation 2016/679 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (hereafter the "GDPR"), this Privacy Statement explains how the University of Luxembourg collects, processes and protects Personal Data in relation with this online survey

The University of Luxembourg is a public higher education and research establishment, operating under the supervision of the Ministry for higher education. The University of Luxembourg has its official address at:

MAISON DU SAVOIR

2, avenue de l'Université

L- 4365 ESCH-BELVAL

Phone number: Tel.: (+352) 46 66 44 1

Internet address: <https://www.uni.lu/university>

The University has appointed a DPO: reachable during working hours. Further information is provided on https://www.uni.lu/university/data\_protection and an email address is available: dpo@uni.lu

We collect information to investigate SMEs needs in the field of data protection and more specifically within the ambit of the GDPR. We will analyse the data you will share with us to develop an automated product that helps businesses to assess data protection risks without resorting to a lawyer. Most of the information that you will share with us relates to your business and your understanding of the GDPR.

The personal data that we collect are: name, surname and e-mail address.

The processing of your personal data is done on the basis of consent (Art. 6 (1)(a)) that you confirm by accepting the present privacy statement. We may contact you by email to follow up with this survey and inform you about the development of our product on the basis of legitimate interest (Art. 6 (1)(a)).

We will only store your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of the survey, maximum 1 year.

In order to make sure that your data is safe, access to your personal data is provided only to the LegAI staff responsible for carrying out this processing operations. The information we collect will not be given to any third party. However, we may use your email address to contact you with information or updates regarding potential developments of our product.

According to the GDPR, you benefit notably from the following rights: right to be informed, right to access to your personal data, right to rectification, right to erasure, right to restrict the scope of the processing, right to object, right to data portability, right to lodge a complaint. The University provides further information on its website page:

https://www.wen.uni.lu/university/data\_protection/your\_rights.

LegAi does not collect any personal data since our services and products target legal persons (business-to-business). We may only collect the name and the contact details of the company, unless otherwise indicated in a dedicated privacy statement (e.g. market survey).

We do not provide any data to third parties, but our website embeds a Youtube video and a LinkedIn widget. All trackers and cookies have been disabled from the Youtube video and any further processing of your personal data in these websites is subject to their respective privacy policies.

In practice, you can exercise your rights by contacting our DPO:

- By sending a request per post to:
Université du Luxembourg
À l'attention de: DPO – Exercise of Data Subject rights
Maison du Savoir
2, Avenue de l'Université, L-4365 ESCH BELVAL
- By sending a request per email to the DPO, at dpo@uni.lu

Any request shall be processed by the University of Luxembourg without undue delay, and where feasible no later than one (1) month after its receipt, at least in order to inform you about the status of your request. This period may be extended for two (2) additional months for complex cases or due to a high volume of requests.

If you consider that the Processing of Personal Data relating to you infringes the GDPR, you will have the right – without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy – to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of your habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement.

In Luxembourg, the competent authority is the Commission Nationale pour la Protection des Données (CNPd).
